

RTO 60134

Confined Space Management Course

Description:

This course is delivered in accordance with Tasmanian WHS Regulations and Code of Practice 2012 and AS/NZS 2865:2009. It covers legislative requirements, duties of workers, confined space identification, establishing procedures, conducting risk assessments, establishing emergency procedures, selecting entry equipment, atmospheric monitoring with gas detectors, documentation and record-keeping, issuing permits, and the use of equipment.

Suitable for:

Designated Accountable Persons, Engineers, Work Supervisors, Leading hands.

Duration of Course:

2 days, 8.30 am - 4.00 pm – unless advised otherwise.

Pre-Requisites:

Currently qualified as a Confined Space Entrant/Operator.

Participant Requirements:

Parts of this course are conducted outdoors. Wear or bring clothing and PPE that you know will keep you protected from the sun and the prevailing weather of the day. Hi-visibility clothing and other PPE may also be mandatory at your workplace – If so, wear it or bring it accordingly.

Wear or bring clothing that can get dusty and dirty.

Assessment:

A theory assessment is conducted at the end of the second day. Practical skills and procedures are assessed during the practical activities and course excursions.

Cost: $900 per person (GST excluded on Nationally-Recognised Training)

Outcome:

A Statement of Attainment (Card) is issued on successful completion for:

- MSMPER300 Issue work permits
- MSMPER201 Monitor and control work permits
- RIIRIS201E Conduct local risk control

PO Box 50
MOONAH TAS 7009
AUSTRALIA

Office and Training Centre
77 Charles Street MOONAH TAS
AUSTRALIA
www.handa.net.au

Phone 03 6272 0800
Fax 03 6272 0844
Email info@handa.net.au