

Engaging Presentations

Course Content

Do you want to learn the art of presenting effectively to an audience?

Public speaking consistently ranks as most peoples' top fear. Did you know that an astounding 75% of people suffer from speech anxiety?

This workshop is designed to help you engage with your audience by building confidence and driving performance.

Workshop content will address the following:

- Identifying your purpose
- Analyse and pitch to the audience
- Content matters – develop an outline and logical sequence
- Writing your talk – what to include, what to leave out
- Ensuring understanding and engaging the audience
- Practice your new skills in the 'safe zone' of learning

Learning Outcomes

- Overcoming fear of public speaking
- Better handle nerves and channel adrenaline for positive impact
- Confidence to analyse the audience and tailor delivery

- Practice techniques that ensure clear, concise and effective wording
- Deliver a polished, professional and credible speech

Who should attend?

- Those who suffer from presentation nerves and feel this is a barrier to their personal or professional wellbeing and success
- Those required to perform presentations in a work setting but who lack experience and or confidence
- Individuals who have a life event such as a job interview, career change, wedding, or retirement where they will need to design and deliver a presentation or public speech
- Anyone looking to be more successful by improving their natural presenting and public speaking style
- Those who would benefit from a boost in confidence speaking to groups

Delivery Information

Duration: 3 hours
Location: State-wide

Investment

$ 250 TCCI member
$ 375 non-member

More Information?

Call 1300 559 122 today to discuss your training needs including on-site or customised delivery, or email training@tcci.com.au