

SAFE BODIES SAFE MINDS

Conference

Wednesday 26 July 2023,
Hotel Grand Chancellor Launceston

An initiative of the WorkCover Tasmania Board delivered by WorkSafe Tasmania

Conference Program
2023 Safe Bodies Safe Minds Conference
Wednesday 26 July, Hotel Grand Chancellor, Launceston

Please note, this program is subject to change at any time

Wednesday 26 July 2023
Time	Session Name		Presenter(s)
09:00	Registration desk opens & arrival tea and coffee
09:30	Welcome & opening		Jane Longhurst , Conference Facilitator
09:40	Workplace bystanders: Putting a stop to poor behaviours for good		Karen Maher , Senior WHS Consultant & Keynote Speaker, SmartCulture
10:25	Understanding why: The human factor		Natalee Johnston , Director & Consultant, Skilful Decisions
11:10	Regulator's update		Robyn Pearce , Executive Director, WorkSafe Tasmania
11:25	Morning Refreshments
11:50 – 12:20	CONCURRENT SESSIONS
	Concurrent #1 Mental Health & Wellbeing	Concurrent #2 Work Health & Safety	Concurrent #3 Worker's Compensation & Return to Work
11:50	1.1.1 The Workplace Wave: The next wave of change disrupting the workforce Julie Mitchell , Allianz Australia	2.1.1 Storytelling principles for communicating your WHS priorities James Ryan , Lifeline Tasmania	3.1.1 Long Covid and return to work support: What works? Barry Gilbert , Tasmanian Foundation for Occupational Medicine
12:20	1.1.2 Risk assessing psychosocial hazards in small to medium sized businesses Julie McLoughlin , OHS & HR Management Systems	2.1.2 Leadership is the difference Jon Fletcher , Jon Fletcher	3.1.2 Understanding the factors that impact return to work following mental injury claims Sharon Richens , Altius Group
12:50	1.1.3 The ultimate cost of caring and the path to creating change Eryca Adams , Courageous Connections Australia	2.1.3 Identifying human factors in workplace incidents Corrie Summers , TasRail	3.1.3 Evidence on evidence: What happens when best practice research is leveraged and supported? A model of care with tangible RTW and health outcomes Riley Bartholomew , Guardian Exercise Rehabilitation

13:20	Lunch
14.15	Trauma-informed leadership: Leading your people and teams safe and well	Polly McGee , author, trauma-trained leadership consultant & psychotherapist
15:00	Safe bodies, safe minds through a sporting lens	Scott Roth , Head Coach, Tasmania JackJumpers
15:45	Conference Close	Jane Longhurst , Conference Facilitator
16:00	Afternoon refreshments available at conference conclusion delegates welcome to stay and network freely	